Returning Home—Callahan's Gone Away.
Returning Saturday night in Ed. Hobson's car.

There was quite a gathering of relatives Sunday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Farmer. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stetson of Litchfield, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Milton Harriman and children, Mrs. L. E. Howard and Mrs. Cora Harriman of Milan N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harriman and his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Hutchinson of Bethel.

Edith Harriman, who was sick part of last week is better, so is working at the mill this week.

Mrs. Winifred McAllister and baby have returned home.

Mrs. Carl Richardson had a pleasant trip from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. May of North Fryeburg, Monday evening.

Sunday evening the Ethel May Shorey orchestra played a fine play here at I. O. O. F. Hall. The orchestra that came with the company was one of the best and the play surely felt it was a pleasant evening.

On Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Harriman took Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mansfield to North Waterford to see their aunt, Mrs. Albert Abbott, who had a bad cold and fell over backwards on the floor.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Harriman were at Sunday, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mansfield were in a body to church.

Mrs. B. F. Wentworth, who returned from the Rest Home in Massachusetts, is not much improved in health.

Sunday, Callahan's family have moved away. Mrs. Callahan, who has been in bed since last fall, was taken to the Rest Home at North Waterford and returned at her brother's, Herbie Callahan's.

Oxford County United Parish

Embracing Albany, North Lovell, East Stoneham and the Waterfalls. Pastoral Staff: Revs. W. J. Bull, B. F. Wentworth, A. C. Townsend.

Rev. W. J. Bull, as delegate from the Union Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers, is attending the National Council at Detroit, Mich. Last Sunday, in his absence, Rev. Marguerite McIntire (Mrs. Glenn McIntire) of Norway, assisted the Staff in filling the appointments. She preached at South Waterford. At East Stoneham the Daughters of Veterans attended church in a body.

In the evening at North Waterford was held an installation service of all the 4-H Club leaders of the United Parish. At North Lovell there was given a stereoscopic lecture on The Trail of Columbus in Porto Rico.

Next Sunday, by giving East Stoneham an early morning service and North Lovell an evening service, the two members of the Staff will be able to fill all the appointments.

The annual Memorial Day exercises will be held at North Waterford on Thursday, May 30. Graves will be decorated in the forenoon, a dinner served at noon, and public exercises held in the afternoon. The address will be given by Rev. A. C. Townsend.

On Saturday of this week will be held at Waterford Masonic Hall a Boys' and Girls' Conference. All 4-H Club members, and all others over ten years old are invited. A picnic lunch will be eaten.

Last Sunday morning Rev. B. F. Wentworth exchanged with Rev. Walter Pay of the Saco Valley United Parish, Mr. Pay preaching at North Waterford and at Albany.

Good progress is now being made on the new Church and Community House at Waterford.
